

Fastball, You're An Ocean

Can you make it easier
For me to understand
How you're holding my heart
In your trembling hands?
Eyes that rise to meet me halfway
Up among the stars
You may be from Venus I'm definitely not from Mars

You're an ocean you're an ocean
Settle down settle down
What's the commotion?
I'm an Island
But you're an ocean
It's a stormy sea of love and emotion
You got me suspended motionless in time

Make the warm wind circle round
My head just like ya do
If I could do it,
I'd be doing it to you
I believe I'd buy whatever you would sell to me
Nothing in my life ever came with a guarantee

You're an ocean
You're an ocean
Settle down settle down
What's the commotion?
I'm an island
But you're an ocean
It's a stormy sea of love and emotion
You got me suspended motionless in time

I believe I'd buy whatever you would sell to me
Nothing in my life ever came with a guarantee

You're an ocean
You're an ocean
Settle down
Settle down
What's the commotion?
I'm an island
But you're an ocean
It's a stormy sea of love and emotion
Ya got me suspended motionless
Ya got me suspended motionless
Ya got me suspended motionless in time
