

Fatal Flowers, Ballroom

If it hadn't been raining that night
You wouldn't have been lookin' for a place to hide
You never would have known about this guy
And all his tricks that made you lie
If it hadn't been raining that night
You wouldn't have been lookin' for a place to hide
And I, I wouldn't be out here in the corner of this ballroom
Wonderin' bout you and about the things you're doin'
If it hadn't been raining that night
You wouldn't have been lookin' for a place to hide
And I, I wouldn't be listening to this seedy speed queen
Wonderin' if she's ever gonna stop talkin';

Ooh and sometimes I blame it on the rain
Yeah, 'cause sometimes it eases the pain

If it hadn't been raining that night
You wouldn't have been lookin' for a place to hide
But you would have left me anyway
'Cause there were no reasons left to stay
