

Fatal Flowers, Johnny D. Is Back!

Remember the man and his golden tunes
The way he moved his ass
Well have I got news for you
Stop the presses Johnny D. is back!

He's rollin', rollin' and rockin' too
Come and see the man the legend
Bring your children, bring your parants too

Down in the gutter no money no hopes
The worst I've ever seen
I told him straight no liquor no dope
And I swear to God Johnny D. is clean

The crowd is wild, you're back at the top
Come on boy let me fix you up
The only chance you'll ever get
It's showtime now Johnny D. is back!
