

Fatso Jetson, Joke Shop

Takes his hat off every night
Runs around the room
Decapitated hot dog man
He'll be coming soon
Wheeling down the midway
And through the black lagoon
Decapitated hot dog man all decked out in the room

Takes the shape of things to come
Get down on your knees
Never fear the headless man
You know he aims to please
Entertaining night and day
Carnival royale
Partner of the classic clown, juggling to hell
