

Fauxliage, Let it go

I'll begin to let you go
When the sunlight melts the snow
Every night I drive away from you
I see the mountains I have yet to move
And you there
You don't care
I wonder if you
Wanted me like i wanted you
It's a lonely truth
That I can't change you
And you sure can't change me
It's hard as hell tonight to sleep
To close my eyes would be admitting my defeat
And you there
You don't care
I wonder if
Wanted me like I wanted you
It's a lonely truth
That I can't change you
And you sure can't change me
Are you
Wanting me like I wanted you
It's a lonely truth
That I can't change you
And you there
You don't care
I wonder if
You wanted me like I wanted you
It's a lonely truth
That I can't change you
Wanted me like I wanted you
It's a lonely truth
That I can't change you
And you sure can't change me
