

Fear Before The March Of Flames, Should Have

The party hasn't started 'till there's spike in the punch.
(Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls.)
The party hasn't started 'till there's spike in the punch.
(Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls.)

More ups and downs than a trampoline.
Let's do coke like we're vacuums.
And dance our troubles away before we drive our cars off bridges.

Ladies and gentlemen.
Boys and girls.
Ladies and gentlemen.
Boys and girls.

Let's, pry, her, ribs open.
And, bathe, in, her chest.

I'm the life of the party until I sober up.
(Oh yeah, oh yeah.)
I'm the life of the party until I sober up.
(Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls.)

And when they find her on the shore
(They'll say).
And when they find her on the shore
(They'll say).
And when they find her on the shore
(They'll say).
And when they find her on the shore,

"Shark that got her was an efficient killer."
"Shark that got her was an efficient killer."
"Shark that got her was an efficient killer."
"Shark that got her was an efficient killer."

Some things (Some things),
Some things are better left unsaid.

Some things (Some things),
Some things are better off dead.

The party hasn't started till there's spike in the punch.
(Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls.)
I'm the life of the party until I sober up.
(Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls.)
