

Fear Factory, 21st Century Jesus (Pisschrist)

where are we now?
that we are blind
abandoned faith
you left behind

were you betrayed?
or did you lie?
our common fate
our common demise

where is the son?
to light the way
along the path
of our dismay

look to the sky
on judgement day
a human god
that was man made

so we lie x4
so we lie...

and so we rise
just to fall down
in reality
you're never found
and reaching out
with sealed eyes
i grab for light
visions denied

look to the sky
on judgement day
a human god

so we lie x4
so we lie...

face down arms out
nailed to the cross of doubt blood runs like rain drowning for this world in vain crown of black thorns human skin ripped and torn
where is your savior now?
where is your savior now?
where is your savior now?
where is your savior now...
