

Fear Factory, Never End

After the smoke clears
And the flames subside
(We have been forsaken...)

A thousand eyes were upon me
Soulless, and without mind
(We have been forsaken...)

Will there never...
Will there never...
Will there never be an end?

If I could be forgiven
Every breath would be a prayer
(We are not forgiven...)

Will there never...
Will there never...
Will there never be an end?

I have tread, and spanned the horizon
I've seen this world, the beauty in decay
I strike down the faceless and unknown
I feel blessed, for I can see
The stars look down on me...
The stars look down on me...
The stars look down on me...
The stars look down on me...

Will there never...
Will there never...

Will there never be an end?
Will there never be an end?
Will there never be an end?
Will there never be an end?

Stars look down on me...
Stars look down on me...
Stars look down on me...
Stars look down on me...
