Fear Factory, Resurrection

Consumed with memories that preceded today Given a chance to bereave life that's slipping away

Suffered through tradegy of my slow decay Deceptive tendencies dragged my soul away

All that I know there was no God for me Force that shatters all, absence of mortality

Revive all my fears Revive wasted tears Revive void withing Revive once again...

Forsaken by destiny, forsaken by my own mind I must remove my skin to see belief in your eyes

All that I know there was no god for me Force that shatters all, absence of humanity

Revive all my fears Revive wasted tears Revive void withing Revive once again...

Reach for the sky Touch the sky Revive a hope For mankind
