

Fear Factory, We Belong Together

Written & composed by Andy Janssens & Kate Ryan

Hailstorms covering the morning sky
Your ambiguous words floating through my mind
Your heart is burning but you hide the love inside
My head is like a whirlwind turning
I need some clarity in my life

Chorus

'Cause we belong together
Pounding hearts forever
Open your eyes and u will see

That we belong together
Fearless love forever
Diving in a new world u and me

Hee-oo-hee-oo-ee-oo

A helpless feeling in my life
Sleepless moments, moments I have cried
My heart is burning
But from me you cannot hide
My head is like a whirlwind turning
You are the essence of my life

Chorus

We belong together
Pounding hearts forever
Open your eyes and u will see

Hee-oo-hee-oo-ee-oo
