

Feeder, I For You

Letting go is not an easy thing
Time to heal before new life begins
And grows
Rising high above the evergreen
Left the city for another week or two

I for you is just the way I feel
Were chasing shadows in the summer sun
And twisting in the wind
Time with you is just what pulls me through
You look so beautiful

Holding on to something part of you
Heal the wound, the scar, the solitude
Inside
Crossing oceans just to be with you
Again

I for you is just the way I feel
Chasing shadows in the summer sun
And twisting in the wind
Time with you is just what pulls me through

You look so beautiful
You're just so beautiful

Letting go is not an easy thing
Time to heal before new life begins
