

Feeder, Stereo World

Staring at the ideal world my bubble begins to break gazing at the ceiling cracks
The more the picture fades It's just that I can't see when I'm down like this
I just feel the weight as I try to resist

It doesn't matter when I can dream away life in a stereo world
Something happens as I drift away away

Floating out of sync again reaching for a cloud levitated high I'm free
Turning myself around just as I feel fine it begins to break
Now the pain is here what a big mistake

It doesn't matter when I can dream away life in a stereo world
Something happens as I drift away away

It just explodes as I drift in a thousand hands caress my skin
I feel so free as it begins

It doesn't matter when I can dream away life in a stereo world
Something happens as I drift away away

You make me feel so good feels so good away away
Life in a stereo world away away life in a stereo world
Stereo world stereo world life in a stereo world
Stereo world stereo world feels so good
