

Feeder, Yeah Yeah

Yeah Yeah...
Yeah Yeah...
Yeah Yeah...
Yeah Yeah...

Lets take us back to our youth
A new solution, the truth
To when we started as friends
don't give it all away
Its just the path that we take
In which direction we break
'Cause we're taking the strain don't give it all away

Yeah...
Yeah Yeah...

She said "I will", so well, how could I ever forget?
She stood so still, so beautiful, how could I ever forget?

Now every day feels the same, you look for someone to blame
You've lost all purpose and gain, don't give it all away
They say the world is confused, twisted, blind and abused
But we're taking the strain, don't give it all away

Yeah...
Yeah Yeah...

She said "I will", so well, how could I ever forget?
She stood so still, so beautiful, how could I ever forget?

Do you want it to? (I can do it) x3

She said "I will", so well, how could I ever forget?
she stood so still, so beautiful, so beautiful...

She said "I will", so well, how could I ever forget?
she stood so still, so beautiful, how could I ever forget?

How could I ever forget?

Yeah Yeah...
Yeah Yeah...
