

Fenix TX, Pasture Of Muppets

It won't be long
Until you learn about this one
Is there any reason you can't say?
I must be wrong
Thought I was the perfect son
And all I want is room to breathe
Say what you want, But I'm running again
Do what you want, But I'm running again
Say what you want, But I'm running again
You can do what you want, But you'll never breathe like me,
Bleed like me, Walk the talk or think like me
Breathe like me, Bleed like me,
You'll never be like me
Can't hold me down
Scream and I won't hear a sound
There's a lot about me you don't know
Throw in the towel
Give it up, you've lost this round
I think it's time for me to go

[Chorus]
