Fenix TX, Pasture Of Muppets

It won't be long Until you learn about this one Is there any reason you can't say? I must be wrong Thought I was the perfect son And all I want it room to breathe Say what you want, But I'm running again Do what you want, But I'm running again Say what you want, But I'm running again You can do what you want, But you'll never breathe like me, Bleed like me, Walk the talk or think like me Breathe like me, Bleed like me, You'll never be like me Can't hold me down Scream and I won't hear a sound There's a lot about me you don't know Throw in the towel Give it up, you've lost this round I think it's time for me to go

[Chorus]
