

Fergie, You Already Know (ft. Nicki Minaj)

life's a movie
let the camera roll
fast life moving
ain;t going slow
that's right baby
you already know /2x
hope you're ready
ready steady, steady
rock it!

let it go get rolled I just can't hold back and forth cause I'm the girl with soul ain;t controlling effects so what the heck
rock the discotheque cause this groove is the next

tease on the camera
freeze while I animate
I'm no amateur
I;m a laminate
imam assassinate all the imitates then Imma take a break and mediate let me think about it put my little noodle on the problem tha I drink about it

drink a little swing a little
sip a little
pill a little feel a little loopy when I get a little tipsy beez got me feeling lika a gypsy smoking on that hookah got me feeling lika a hippie, trippy gone for a minute and you missed me no Fergie back with a bag full of trickiest, what

life's a movie
let the camera roll
fast life moving
ain;t going slow
that's right baby
you already know /2x
hope you're ready
ready steady, steady
rock it!

this is how we do /4x

I made a movie like Seth Rog
And since I came in the game

5 shows, made 3 million in a week You're now looking at the best, the elite too bad you can't go and invest in critiques
