

Ferid, Reason

Used to make you happy
Just to share a little time
Loved the girl inside you
When did you leave her behind?
After all that we've been through
Can we come to what is true?

Give me a reason to love you
Give me a reason to do what I do
Give me a reason to hold you

Won't you let me love you?
Show me your love again

You would die without me
So you've said a thousand times
You broke another mirror
I can't seem to change your mind
After all that we've been through
Can we come to what we knew?

Give me a reason to love you
Give me a reason to do what I do
Give me a reason to hold you

Won't you let me love you?
Show me your love again
