

Fermata, Ablaze

And it rained
And the sirens came
And it got
So very late
And off my black dress came
But in my arms you wouldn't stay

And no, we couldn't wait
'Cuz we thought, we were the same
I tried, but the colors fade
No matter how hard my heart praises bliss
Well they'll measure me to the threads
Of the gone betray I thought
That I knew your name
But you don't believe in grace

And I, I was ablaze for you and I
I was amazed by you and I
I want to change it's true
I'm levitating in those days

And I, I was ablaze for you and I
I was amazed by you and I
I want to change it's true
I'm levitating in those days

Oh it fit, like a serenade of the props
On an empty stage we sow
With a measure made
You don't need me I'm in your way
Hold on, to the seasons change
Don't go, I will be the same
My heart, is a furnace flame
Extinguish me, I cannot wait

And I, I was ablaze for you and I
I was amazed by you and I
I want to change it's true
I'm levitating in those days

And I, I was ablaze for you and I
I was amazed by you and I
I want to change it's true
I'm levitating in those days

How could I, in good conscience stay?
How could I, throw my heart away?
How could I, in good conscience stay?
How could I, throw my heart away

And I, I was ablaze for you and I
I was amazed by you and I
I want to change it's true
I'm levitating in those days

And I, I was ablaze for you and I
I was amazed by you and I
I want to change it's true
I'm levitating in those days
