

Fetal Attraction, A Heart Burned To Ashes

i've felt the cold
for a bit too long as the warmth rolls over,
am i on fire or is it just too cold?
please someone thaw out my frozen heart

don't say you promise those don't mean a thing trust belongs to the following words
"cross my heart,
i'm going to die,
and for once,
i really don't care."

now i'll forgive you
my hearts getting warm
just then i realize the sensation is fire
and my heart is burned to ashes
