

Few Left Standing, Educate The Ignorant the stage is an open platform I speak of personal conviction because of that I am a guest who's in charge

it's an open forum
music is music
we're here to share what we know can we not coexist are there limits on being open minded are we a threat to you it seems to be personal but it doesn't have to be acceptance is a part of life tolerance is too
we're to help not corrupt
