

Few Left Standing, Give Credit Where Credit Is Due

You love when I don't deserve it worthy is Your name Your kindness is greater than life when it rains it pours blessed are those who abide in You when I am weak You are strong Your strength and beauty are eternal holy and awesome are Your works Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path in You I find myself I cannot wait to see Your face
You are the Rock of my salvation
