

FFH, Every Now And Then

Every now and then I get a little wrapped up in myself and I...

I can't see you reaching Every now and then I get a little overwhelmed by the world and I can't hear you calling You have always told me you'll always be there.
You are only one prayer away.

Every now and then
You whisper peace to me
with your tender words
unexpectedly.

And when I'm at the end
and taking my last breath
and drowning in my pride

Oh and I can see you
coming around the bend
Yeah you're taking me
to that place again.

Every now and then I get a little tired of my reflection and I want to break the mirror And every now and then I get blinded by my own perception and I need to see you clearer.
But you have always told me
you'll always be there.
You are only one prayer away.

Every now and then
you whisper peace to me
with your tender words
unexpectedly

When I'm at the end

Oh and I can see you
coming around the bend
to that place again.

Every now and then...

Every now and then
you whisper peace to me

When I'm at the end

Oh then I can see you
coming around the bend
to that place again.

Every now and then...

Oh, and I can see you
coming around the bend

Yeah, you're finding me in this place again.
Every now and then...
