

FFH, Hide Me In Your Heart, O Lord

Hide me in Your heart

The ocean is deep, the mountains are high
O Lord, You are the master of wind inside
When I am afraid sweet Savior come close
To You merciful one I lift up my soul

Reff:

Hide me in Your heart O Lord
Hold me in Your arms
Still the wind and calm the storm
Hide me in Your heart

The sorrows they fill this valley so wide
And I can't help but wonder
What's on the other side
But I'll trust in You my shelter and friend
You know that I need this comfort again

Now I come to You, Jesus, to look for the place
Where I first gazed upon Your face
As I enter Your presence I realize Your grace
And I find my rest in Your embrace
