

FFH, In This Moment

Stuck here on this highway
In a river of red lights
For at least another mile
Theres no relief in sight

Felling all alone but
Then from the radio comes
A singer to remind me
Something I already know

In this moment, You are here with me
In this moment, You are closer than the air I breathe
Youre the God who reigns in Heaven
And its amazing indeed
That You are here with me
In this moment

A few things on my checklist
That I need to do downtown
So I step on to the sidewalk
Full of people all around

Someone said the city
Can be a lonely place
But even though I know
I cant find one familiar face

Anywhere, anytime Im on my own
Ill hold on to the promise that I will never be alone

Even though its midnight
And Im lying in the dark
I think of You up in Heaven
Yet You are in my heart
