

FFH, Listen

Voices are everywhere, and they're screaming at us: use me, buy me, believe me. We've got voices.
And then there is that voice from the past or that voice in your head that says you messed up too much.
I had this amazing conversation with my dad not too long ago. He's a great man. I love him so much.
Man, and without hearing that voice. Without hearing that, whether it's the actual physical audience.
Yeah, and that's something amazing about Jesus. He could look down into somebody's spirit and do it.
And how about that woman that came up to Him when He was going through that crowd, and she touched Him?
You know, Jesus got that honestly from His father. Three times when Jesus was under immense pressure.
I think it did too. You may have never heard that voice. That voice that says you're worth it. You're
