

FFH, Little Change

You've seen it all before
You open up the door and I just turn away
Walk the other way
You offer so much more than I could ever ask for
But I say thanks anyway
I go on and on alone
Make believing I can make it on my own

(Chorus)

I think it's time for me to make a change
And start walking back to you
Before I go so far away
That I can't hardly see you Reaching out,

calling the prodigal I said I'd never be Now what I need is a little change

I've played the game before But now the game is taking more than I can give
And I'm dying to give in
But you're holding out for me
But what you're holding out for me
I can barely see
Because my visions' so dim
I try, but I can only hardly recognize
This light that should be blinding my eyes.

(Repeat Chorus)
