

FFS, Johnny Delusional

Words are in my head but I can't enunciate them clearly
Headphones on your hair, they prevent a chance to even try

Some might find me borderline attractive from afar
But afar is not where I can stay and there you are

Though I want you
I know I haven't a chance
Still I want you

I know 'yes' and 'no' in a couple dozen different languages
But your form of "no" is the kind of look I can't deny
Tell me, are resistance and stupidity the same?
Tell me, is resistance so enticing? Please explain

Though I want you
I know I haven't a chance
Still I want you

Paging Mr. Delusional
You're wanted at the desk
You're wanted at the front desk

Wouldn't it be terrible if there's no music there?
Wouldn't it be terrible if she don't want you here?
