

Fickle, Secret Garden

I don't want you to understand me

Don't wanna hear you trying to explain me

I hardly know myself, so how can you pretend to show me the way things have to be ?
Confusion in my head, clumsiness in what I say, doubt, weakness, paranoia all day long
It's not (that) easy to understand what I feel, how I live
So don't judge me when I'm wrong

Just think about it for a moment : how many people know exactly who you are ?

I hardly know myself, so how can you pretend to show me the way things have to be ?
Confusion in my head, clumsiness in what I say, doubt, weakness, paranoia all day long
It's not (that) easy to understand what I feel, how I live
So don't judge me when I'm wrong
So don't judge me when I'm wrong

I am the man behind the screen, the one behind the shadow, what's inside of me, you'll never know

I am the man behind the screen, the one behind the shadow, what's inside of me, you'll never know

Confusion in my head, clumsiness in what I say, doubt, weakness, paranoia all day long
It's not (that) easy to understand what I feel, how I live
So don't judge me when I'm wrong
Please don't judge me when I'm wrong

(Merci ntOale pour cetttes paroles)
