

Fiction Plane, Hate

We're cool, We're different,
And we hate things, Yea we hate things,
We hate people,

Take a stand and we will cut you down,
Be yourself and we'll call you a liar,
Be somebody else and we'll set you on fire,
Keep yourself to yourself and we don't care if you're dying,
Don't tell me to look at myself,
I know that I don't exist,
I am perfect I don't exist,
In this stupid human world,

We're cool, We're different,
And we hate things, Yea we hate things,
We hate people,

Before you told me what you thinks in my mind,
There's something there that I've been trying to find,
About the day that I woke up to your side,
The world is lovely and I want to be blind,

We're cool, We're different,
And we hate things, Yea we hate things,
We hate people,

Take a minute to think what's right,
You'll be up until the end of the night,
Lets forget that people's problems are there,
Turn on the TV sit there and stare,
Guess what's wrong with us is hard to explain,
You know it's easier to kill then create,
Building happiness it seems there's no time,
We spend our days thinking love is a crime,

We're cool, We're different,
And we hate things, Yea we hate things,
We hate people,
We're cool, We're different,
And we hate things, Yea we hate things,
We hate people.
