

Fifteen, Front

Hey friend you always had a smile for me
Hey friend you always had a smile for me
Hey friend you went and OD'ed and left me
After a life of abuse I could hardly blame you
Can we have a world where girls can be girls and boys and be boys
Where the adults don't use us as outlets for anger and as sexual toys
Bye-bye-bye, bye-bye-bye, bye-bye-bye-bye
Bye-bye-bye-bye-bye
Just say no, hands off-my body
Just say no, your voice out of my head
