

Fifteen, In Our World

In our world, we got six billion
And some might say, conflict is unavoidable
But I think we got choices, so I'll say everything will be alright Don't you know, it's just a simple choice we can choose to get along with each other, or go down, bow down to your hate and ours fears, bow down to our fists and our guns, but I think we know what that gets us, don't you know

Violence is suicide

In the name of love-lay down your pride and your ego
In the name of love-lay down your gangs and your guns
In the name of love-lay down your law and your order
In the name of love-lay down your countries, your borders
In the name of love-lay down your sword and shield, down by the river side

In our world, we got all we need

So I say conflict is insanity

And I know we got choices

And so I saw, everything will be alright

Peace on Earth.
