

Fifteen, Stolen Smiles

A single Solitary smile
That's what makes it all worthwhile
It makes you stick around for a bit
Keeps you going when you want to quit
It'll make you drive a thousand miles
I never knew anything that felt this good
It comes in many different styles
And every time you turn the dial
You hear the reasons why you stayed that way
And never say I think I'll change my style
I never knew anything that felt this good
