

Fifth Avenue, Why

Verse 1:

One more night alone now
My heart's in pain
Looking at these four walls
Driving me insane
I can't go outside
The thoughts of seeing you
I carry the this heartache
That you put me through

Bridge:

I thought I got over, This loneliness inside
But baby it's these tears I just can't hide

Chorus:

So why does it hurt me so much
Why can't I let go of love
Why does my heart feels so bad
Why does it make life so sad
Baby I can't answer
These questions in my mind
But I know it hurts me so deep inside

Verse 2:

A thousand words to say
That mean the same
Why do you feel like you
Have to play these games
I'm going nowhere
I know what I have to do
I'm spinning in circles
And my life is torn in two

Bridge:

If loving you was wrong
Then I don't wanna be right
Baby let me hold you through the night

Chorus:

So why does it hurt me so much
Why can't I let go of love
Why does my heart feels so bad
Why does it make life so sad
Baby I can't answer
These questions in my mind
But I know it hurts me so deep inside

Middle 8:

Was it something I said now
Was it something I done
Was it something that I believed
I thought you were the one
Hurt me so much
Let go of love
Heart feel so bad
Make life so sad
Baby I can't answer
These questions in my mind
But I know it hurts me so deep inside

Chorus(x2):

Hurt me so much
Why can't I let go of love
Why does my heart feels so bad

Why does it make life so sad
Baby I can't answer
These questions in my mind

But I know it hurts me so deep inside
I know it hurts me so deep inside
