

Fighting Gravity, Sparrow

(Lyrics, Music: Leitch, Triano)

Your feet still stuck in the snow, the tracks you made have disappeared
I cannot wait to see you close your eyes tonight
Can you see me standing against the wall that you built for me?
The nails in my hands from all the lies you thought were true
I cannot wait for you, I will not wait for you my friend
I need to get some rest before I fall asleep again

(Refrain)

Sparrow will fly high above the wind that brought you here
Sparrow will fly
Sparrow will fly high above the wind that brought you here
Sparrow will fly

Oceans swell inside my mind
but never will your sun dry the pain
The picture in my wallet is fading once again
Oh, mother, does she know how much I want to be her?
I cannot wait for you, I will not wait for you my friend
I need to get some rest before I fall asleep again

(Refrain)

Sleep my child, your time has come
Flowers lay across your body
I guess I should have waited for the sun to break the day
Guess I should have waited for the sun to break the day
