Fightstar, Amethyst

She smokes like an amethyst Moving her way through my skin She moves me Cause East is the way I go But nobody seems to notice how I feel Keep all the lights off And I'll try to kill our past time Just to find your heart Please dont ignore me Or I'll just fall asleep And wake up when you're gone This body only needs To learn to feel the problem disappear I froze with those plastic eyes Cutting lose from upon this disguise Keep all the lights off And I'll try to kill our past time Just to find your heart Please dont ignore me Or I'll just fall asleep And wake up when you're gone She smokes like an amethyst Moving her way through my skin
