

Fightstar, Ghosts On 31

We have never seen so far as this Distance fails my feet as our minds think

If you could look in our eyes through the walls
Igniting the fires will be hard to ignore
If you don't act now, you'll never know

I will never walk this far again
We're all so weak broken hearted here

If you could look in our eyes through the walls
Igniting the fires will be hard to ignore
Cause the air is getting tired I can't seem to stay awake
Im tryin to run away
Putting out the flames
You left us to burn in here
Fk this place, I'm sick of this

It's hard for me to change the lies
When all the hate gets paralyzed

We live in a world
With faith alone
The one thing you seek
To hold the most
Do i go

Do you suffer it

Distance hurts me
Distance hurts me
Distance hurts me
Distance hurts me

I've never walked so far (repeat x7)
