

Fightstar, Open Your Eyes

Would you change this all if you'd had your way,
Waking up in darkness must have been hard,
Finding all these moments burned into reminisce,
Desperaltely you crawl and ask yourself.

If you could just open your eyes,
If you could just open your eyes.

Foe everyone's sake,
For everyone's sake,
Stay away from here,
For everyone's sake,
I got left behind,
For eveyone's sake,
Stay away from here.

Making sense of senses you never found,
Clutching on to dust as hope becomes clearer,
People breathing air in hope of a perfect world,
All these chances you could make it all fit.

If you could just open your eyes,
If you could just open your eyes.

Foe everyone's sake,
For everyone's sake,
Stay away from here,
For everyone's sake,
I got left behind,
For eveyone's sake,
Stay away from here.

If you could just open you eyes.
