

Figure Four, Enemy

Go cover up you track.

Another lie goes around.

Another lie spewed from your mouth.

You took your shot at me but I gave it all I had.

In the end I'll rise above and you'll meet your destiny.

This is your destiny.

Everyday I face the world

I feel you on my back whispering another lie to throw me off my track.

I learn from my mistakes and I know that I'm forgiven.

My strength comes from above.
