

Filip Sterniuk, Let Me Know (piosenka na Eurowizja)

Have I left my soul in the back of your car?
Ummm.....just let me know

I'm looking for the answers
Searching for a chance
A minute melts the whole space
Now I can hear my breath
Livin' in a house that's empty
Open door, no paint
Is there anything left?

Have I left my soul in the back of your car?
I just needa know, when I could get it back
Cause I'm laying alone, drowning in my fake world
Baby, let me know

You like that
You like that

On rainy nights my room looks different
Window's cold embrace
I always knew how fast my thoughts break
I could feel that pace
As the leaves fall every year and
When the walls don't change
Is there anything left?

Have I left my soul in the back of your car?
I just needa know, when I could get it back
Cause I'm laying alone, drowning in my fake world
Baby, let me know

Have I left my soul in the back of your car?
I just needa know, when I could get it back
Cause I'm laying alone, drowning in my fake world
Baby, let me know

How much I can take?
Guess I'm gonna stay in my own bed
Oh, don't wanna be alone
I'm so scared of ghosts
Oh, Can I hear your voice?

Have I left my soul in the back of your car?
I just needa know, when I could get it back
Cause I'm laying alone, drowning in my fake world
Baby, let me know

Have I left my soul in the back of your car?
I just needa know, when I could get it back
Cause I'm laying alone, drowning in my fake world
Baby, let me know
