Finch, Ravenous

Below the earth lies a serpent Fire and brimstone Remove the backbone Say hello to sunshine Wake up, you're baptized

The temple is me Something to believe in Is something to be

The evidence is all we taste

Under the skin the heart is pumping What brought you to this? Meat once was useless Focus on the fiction Lose sight of the vision

The temple is me Something to believe in Is something to be

The evidence is all we taste

Man makes changes Man wants everything! Man makes changes Man wants everything! Everything, everything
