

Finding Westerly, Sounds Of A Broken Heart (Acoustic)

Watching you sleep, you're slipping away
I'm thinking of how I can get you to stay
I'm wondering how, things got so wrong
You're here with me but you're already gone

Too blind to know, too dumb to see
That you're not even in love with me
Too blind to know, too dumb to see
I'd be better off if you weren't with me

You're running, this by her
Emotions, on fire
Your love is, Now past her
The burning, is faster

Watching the phone, hope for a surprise
The sound of your voice, that cries in the night
I'm reading the notes, you wrote me before
Remembering why that its you I adore

Too blind to know, too dumb to see
That you're not even in love with me
Too blind to know, too dumb to see
I'd be better off if you weren't with me

You're running, this by her
Emotions, on fire
Your love is, Now past her
The burning, is faster

Why can't you, you ever see-How much your love, means to me
Im everything, cause what you've shown
Now without you, im so alone

Too blind to know, too dumb to see
That you're not even in love with me
Too blind to know, too dumb to see
I'd be better off if you weren't with me

You're running, this by her
Emotions, on fire
Your love is, Now past her
The burning, is faster
