

Finger Eleven, For The Ocean

Without it I'm failing
My heart waits in the wings alone
The stages I go through
Keep coming time and time and time again
Do you wonder how I stay
So complacent
It's like waiting for the ocean
To save you from the waves
When you're so far under
Silent
Never moving
You're never moving
You've taken your timing
So flawless executing me
So fearless and hopeful
Can you imagine such a scene?
Do you wonder how I stay
So complacent
It's like waiting for the ocean
To save you from the waves
When you're so far under
Silent
Nevermind
Waiting for the needle
To take away the pain
Until finally we numb our every border
Do you wonder
Did you ever wonder
How I stay
So complacent
And I stay
So complacent
It's like waiting for the ocean
To save you from the waves
When you're so far under
Silent
Nevermind
Waiting for the needle
To take away the pain
Until finally we numb our every border
Our every border
