

Finger Eleven, Nibber

Don't trust yourself alone with me.
Don't think I'll ever set you free.
I've been pushed much harder that you've ever been,
So don't expect to see what's underneath my skin.

I'd hate to think that you're afraid.
It's too late to think about mistakes you've made.
I've been pushed much harder that you've ever been,
So don't expect to see what's underneath my skin.

Just leave me, I'm alright for now,
I'll find a way inside some how.
I'll keep myself alive today,
Don't think about tomorrow.

I'm feeling harder than before.
Your skin feels colder,
As you fall to the floor
I've been pushed much harder that you've ever been,
So don't expect to see what's underneath my skin.

Just leave me, I'm alright for now,
I'll find a way inside some how.
I'll keep myself alive today,
Can't think about tomorrow.

I've been pushed much harder that you've ever been,
So don't expect to see what's underneath my skin.
