Finger Eleven, Stay And Drown

Good God have I been dreaming
This paralyzing feeling?
Was I left alone?
Where have you gone?
Were you somewhere else just sleeping?
If I wait to wake you
I'll never ask you

Would you take my hand?
In the deepest end
Would you stay and drown in me?
Take my hand
In the deepest end
My open eyes see everything

But I'm passing all the days
Through a window pane
And as the scene would change
I'd stay the same
This paradise was nothing new
But the paradise gets tired of you
A single conversation
Stole my attention

Would you take my hand? In the deepest end Would you stay and drown in me? Take my hand In the deepest end Would you stay and drown in me?

My open eyes see everything And you see nothing And don't forget it

Take my hand
In the deepest end
Would you stay and drown in me?
Take my hand
In the deepest end
Would you stay and drown in me?
Take my hand
In the deepest end
Would you stay and drown in me?
Can you stay and drown in me?
Would you stay and drown in me?
