

Fingertips, Even I

Oh, please give me you tell me the things you use to do oh, please give me smiles don't be so shy, don't be so blue oh, please give me your hands and don't do that things to me oh, please give me your shame i'm free...

i can't resist your innocence it's so confusing it makes no sense you look at me, then you don't it makes me shiver, it burns my skin my eyes shine as you pass me by i act like a freak and don't know why my head is spinning, my heart could come out oh, stop it please...

even i don't understand what i'm here for even i don't comprehend, i need more even i just don't know why i cry these tears even i, even i... don't dare to ask why oh, please give me stories give me things i wanna do oh, please give me glories and things i wanna thing they're true oh, please just give me your eyes and give me no more lies just say that you're mine... say it...

but has it seems a sign came from high suddenly you went out... out of sight but has i was thinking i was on my own you came again and i lost my control...
