

Fingertips, How Do You Know Me

I was living my life I was living on my own then i felt something weird I lost my control there's a strange feeling here and there's nothing to hold but then i felt you it was something like...yeah i called you special golden rope 'cause there you are when i'm lonely i really breath the air you breath oh,you get me

i'm walking slowly as i'm thinking that we... we are two bodies for one unique soul

how do you know me?
but i'll never know me like you do when i'm locked in my room i get free in your world oh,i'm lost in your doom yeah,you made the change there are bits of you stuck all over me i get closer to you i get completely free

i'm crazy,alone
but i hear your smile
i see nobody but you know my eyes living with me was my sad surprise we are both too depressive but we'll see...our own sun rise

how do you know me?
