

Fink, If Only

I ain't being funny, I ain't got the brakes

I ain't got the aces, I ain't got the stakes

If Only

I ain't got the nerve, I ain't got the makings of the man you deserve, I ain't got the time

If Only

I'll be right on the train, up to town to, take you out again

Right on the train, first one outta here, to take you out again

I ain't got the bullshit, and I ain't got the lies

I ain't got the memories of tears in your eyes

If Only

I'd be right on the money, I'd be right on time

I'd be right about everything that's bin all on my mind

If Only

I'll be right on the train, up to town to, take you out again

Right on the train, first one outta here, to take you out again

You got a new man, and he sounds great

I got a new girl who treats me right

If Only

I'd be right on the train, first one out

Up to town to take you out

Again
