

Fireside, Cement

Keep me around as your skeleton
The curtains that I stole
A new year running cold
I picture like my dream what never will appear

I will take it in a while and I'll give you your time in a while

Keep me around as a burden
The stillness in my eyes
Like winter late at night
I try to forget, you try not to regret

Keep me around as a friend
Try not to shut me out
I think I've done my time
The memories that I have

I'm glad that you were mine
I'm sad you were mine
