

Fireside, Elevator Action

Im just running around
Its so hard to be on time
I keep falling down
Nothing left for me to find
But when she comes around
Then it feels a little better for a while

Sometimes I dream that youre alive
Sometimes I dream that youre still here, that youre alive

Youre evil now
Well what was that all about
Not a sign
Not a word and then goodbye
But then she comes around
And it feels a little better for a while

Sometimes I dream that youre still here, that youre alive
