Firewater, Before The Fall

I'm a bad, bad boy
Everybody tells me so
I'm a bad, bad boy
I get clocked with all the wrong faces

I'm a bad, bad girl
I read it on the bathroom wall
I'm a bad, bad girl
I hang out in all the wrong places

Take me take me
It's alright
You won't break me
What's it feel like
Could it be like it's never been before

I'm a bad, bad girl
Everybody says it's true
I'm a bad, bad boy
But I ain't even started to be bad yet

Take me take me
It's alright
You won't break me
What's it feel like
Could it be like ecstasy like it never was before

We're going down
'Cause it's a bad, bad world
'Cause it's a bad, bad world
'Cause it's a bad, bad world
But it's the only one we've got

It's a bad, bad world
Always kicks you when you're down
It's a bad, bad world

Take me take me
It's alright
You won't break me
What's it feel like
Could it be like ecstasy like it never was before

And I need you to know
'Cause it's a bad, bad world
'Cause it's a bad, bad world
'Cause it's a bad, bad world
But it's the only one we've got
